SET's free-float requirement is that listed firms must have at least 150 minority shareholders, holding at least 15% of a company's paid-up capital, as shown on the shareholder list used for a company's annual general meeting of shareholders.

These firms must report their progress in rectifying the shortfall once a year together with the report on the distribution of shares held by the strategic shareholders until the free-float requirement is met. The due date for PRG, whose accounting period ends on June 30, is November 14, 2010, should the deficit still exist.
