SECTION 3

Filing of Application and Consideration for Approval of Securities

-----

Part 1

Procedures for Filing of Application

-----

12. The Applicant shall file an application for listing all the ordinary shares issued.

Filing an Application for all Ordinary Shares

13. For filing an application for listing preferred shares, the Applicant shall file them together with or after filing an application for listing ordinary shares as listed securities.

Filing an Application for Preferred Shares

The Applicant shall file an application for listing the preferred shares having the same qualifications that are issued in the entirety and whenever such securities are issued.

The Applicant shall not be able to file an application for listing preferred shares as listed securities when the Applicant's ordinary shares are in the period of prohibition for purchase or sale as Listed Securities because the Applicant is undergoing any of the following:

Grounds for Being Unable to File an Application

(2) being in the process according to the reorganization plan under the law governing bankruptcy; or

(3) any operation which materially adversely affects the rights and benefits of shareholders.

(Bor.Jor./Ror. 01-00)

14. An Applicant who is fully qualified under this Regulation, or an Applicant who possesses all other qualifications under this Regulation except that relating to distribution of minority shareholding, may file an application to the Exchange for its approval of ordinary shares which are fully qualified according to Clause 3 as Listed Securities. Applying for Ordinary Shares

15. An Applicant who is required to distribute minority shareholding in order to make itself fully qualified shall complete such distribution of minority shareholding within 6 months from the date on which the Exchange notified the Applicant of the result of its consideration to approve the ordinary shares. Distribution of Shareholding to be Fully Qualified

Where there is a necessary and appropriate grounds, the Board may grant waiver on the period of time for distribution of shareholdings under the first paragraph, provided that the Applicant must request for waiver and provide explanation of the reasons thereof in writing to the Board not less than 7 days before the expiry date under the first paragraph and provided further that the period of the waiver must not exceed 6 months from the expiry date of the period under the first paragraph.

In case that an Applicant who has paid-up capital of not less than Baht 10 billion wishes to gradually distribute its minority shareholding by submitting a minority-shareholding distribution plan to the Exchange in the filing of an application for listing ordinary shares, the Board may additionally grant waiver on period of time for the distribution of minority shareholding if the Applicant has already commenced the public offering of its shares within the period of time under the first or second paragraph. However, such period of waiver shall not exceed 1 year from the commencement date of public offering of the ordinary shares.

In case that the Applicant under the third paragraph is unable to complete the distribution of minority shareholding within the period under the third paragraph, the Exchange may require its ordinary shares to be traded in accordance with the procedures stipulated by the Exchange.

16. In the case that there is an event or change which significantly affects the operation or financial condition of the Applicant during the period of waiver under Clause 15, the Board may consider qualifications of the securities and of the Applicant as if the Board were considering a new application. Consideration of Qualifications of Securities as if it was a New Application

17. Upon occurrence of any of the following events, the Exchange may require the Applicant who fails to possess the qualification on distribution of minority shareholding under Clause 15 to file a new application: Filing of New Application in case of Lack of Distribution of Minority Shareholding Qualification

(1) the Applicant is unable to distribute minority shareholding within the period of time under Clause 15;

(2) the Board considers that it is inappropriate to give waiver for the period of distribution of minority shareholding; or

(3) the qualifications of the Applicant after the distribution of minority shareholding under Clause 15 have changed significantly, which results in the Applicant being not fully qualified under this Regulation.

18. The Applicant shall file an application with the Exchange, and other documents required by the Exchange, and pay a fee for filing an application. Filing Procedures

19. In filing an application for listing ordinary shares, the Applicant shall procure that the application is jointly prepared by a financial advisor having the qualifications and scope of work as specified by the Exchange. Financial advisor

Consideration for Approval of Securities

20. During consideration of the application, if the Applicant wishes to amend any information or documents which have been filed with the Exchange under Clause 18, the Applicant shall submit a request for amendment stating clearly the differences and reasons, except that where the Board determines that the proposed amendments are material, the Board may consider such amendments to be a new application. Amendment of Information

21. In considering the application, the Exchange may instruct the Applicant to make any additional statements and submit any additional documents or evidences as considered appropriate within the prescribed period of time. Requiring Additional Documents

22. In considering the application for and approval of ordinary shares, the Board may assign the President of the Exchange to perform duty of considering the qualifications of the ordinary shares and the Applicant and ordering approval of the applied ordinary shares as Listed Securities when it is found that such ordinary shares have the qualifications according to the rules, conditions and procedures under this Regulation. Consideration for Approval of Ordinary Shares

In considering the application and the approval of preferred shares, the Board may assign the President of the Exchange to perform duty of considering the qualifications of the preferred shares and ordering approval of the applied preferred shares as Listed Securities when it is found that such preferred shares have the qualifications according to the rules, conditions and procedures under this Regulation. The preferred shares shall be approved as Listed Securities together with or after approval of ordinary shares as Listed Securities. Consideration for Approval of Preferred Shares

23. If the Board considers that approval of the Applicant's ordinary shares or preferred shares as Listed Securities shall be beneficial to the capital market, the Board may grant waiver on the qualifications of the Applicant with respect to the following numerical or quantitative criteria for consideration of the application and approval of ordinary shares or preferred shares under Clause 22: Relaxation of Numerical or Quantitative Criteria

- (1) paid up capital pursuant to Clause 4(2);
- (2) distribution of minority shareholding pursuant to Clause 4(3)(a), (b) and (d)(d.1) and (d.2);
- (3) operating result pursuant to Clause 4(4);
- (4) financial condition and liquidity pursuant to Clause 4(5)(b).

In the granting of waiver under the first paragraph, the Board must disclose the information about the waived qualifications of the Applicant to the public.

24. If the Board considers and finds that approval of the application's ordinary or preferred shares as Listed Securities might conflict with public or government policy or affect credibility of Thailand's capital market as a whole, such as causing damages to investors, bringing unfairness to investors, or causing investors to receive insufficient information etc., the Board may not approve such ordinary or preferred shares. Consideration for Approval of Shares of an Applicant

25. During the period that the Board is considering the application for approval of ordinary shares, the directors, Management or Major Shareholders of the Applicant, and all their Prohibition of Purchase or Sale of Ordinary Shares during the Board's Consideration of the Application respective Related Persons shall not purchase or sell such ordinary shares. The Applicant shall notify the Exchange when there is such a purchase or sale or when there is any suspicion that a purchase or sale of such ordinary shares by the said persons may occur.

In the case that there is a purchase or sale of ordinary shares of a person referred to in the first paragraph, the Board may refuse to consider the application of the Applicant.

26. The Board shall complete the consideration of an application for approval of ordinary shares and preferred shares within 7 days from the date on which the Exchange receives correct and complete documents and evidences from the Applicant.

Consideration Period

In calculation of time under the first paragraph, the period of time between the date on which the Applicant submits a request to amend information or documents under Clause 20 or the date on which the Exchange gives instruction under Clause 21 and the date on which the Exchange receives correct and complete information or documents shall not be counted.

27. Before the Board approves the ordinary shares of the Applicant as Listed Securities, the Applicant must prohibit the persons as designated by the Board from selling the shares and securities as prescribed by the Exchange.

Prohibition from Selling Shares within Specified Time

In case that the said persons acquire other securities convertible into shares from the Applicant, or there is an exercise of conversion right attached to such securities during the sale prohibition period, the Applicant shall also prohibit those persons from selling such securities.

28. In considering the application for approval of ordinary shares, the Board shall make a vote openly unless at least 1 director requests voting by poll and the meeting resolves accordingly.

Ordering of Approval of Securities

29. After consideration of the application by the Board, if the Board considers that the ordinary shares applied for listing have the qualifications in accordance with the rules, conditions and procedures set forth in this Regulation, the Applicant shall sign a listing agreement with the Exchange before the Board approves such ordinary shares as Listed Securities. The Board may also prescribe any condition as it considers appropriate.

Signing of Listing Agreement

The agreement shall be signed by the directors authorized to sign to bind the Applicant with approval of its board of directors.

30. The trading of ordinary and preferred shares which are Listed Securities on the Exchange may commence in the next 2 business days from the date on which the Board approves such securities as Listed Securities, except that where there is any necessity which makes it inappropriate to trade those Listed Securities on the Exchange at such period, the President may otherwise prescribe the commencement date of trading.

Trading Commencement Date

31. The Applicant shall pay fees for listing and fees in relation to the status of Listed Securities at the rates and within the time specified by the Board.

Listing Fees

32. In the case that a Listed Company increases its capital, such Listed Company shall file an application for listing ordinary shares or preferred shares with respect to such capital increase, which are of the same type as the ordinary shares or preferred shares that have been listed.

Approval for the Increased Capital

Consideration of application for approval of securities with respect to the capital increase as Listed Securities shall be in accordance with the rules, conditions and procedures prescribed by the Exchange.

(Bor.Jor./Ror. 01-00)

33. In the case that a Listed Company whose ordinary shares are Listed Securities traded on the Market for Alternative Investment (mai) is fully qualified under this Regulation, such Listed Company may file an application requesting that the Board designate its ordinary shares for trading on, or as Listed Securities on the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET). The Board may consider such application as if it were a new listing application, and may waive the following qualifications and conditions:

- (1) distribution of minority shareholding in accordance with Clause 4(3);
- (2) the requirement that the Applicant must have a financial advisor jointly prepare its application in accordance with Clause 19;
- (3) the prohibition from selling shares and securities during the period prescribed in accordance with Clause 27.

SECTION 3

Filing of Application and Consideration for Approval of Securities

-----

Part 1

Procedures for Filing of Application

-----

79. The Applicant shall file an application for listing all the ordinary shares issued.

Filing an Application for All
Ordinary Shares

80. In filing an application for listing preferred shares, the Applicant shall file them together with or after filing an application for listing ordinary shares as Listed Securities.

Filing an Application for Preferred Shares

The Applicant shall file an application for listing the preferred shares having the same qualifications that are issued in the entirety and whenever such securities are issued.

The Applicant shall not be able to file an application for listing preferred shares as Listed Securities when the Applicant's ordinary shares are in the period of prohibition for purchase or sale as Listed Securities because the Applicant is undergoing any of the following:

Grounds for Being Unable to File an Application

(1) being in the process of remedy for eliminating the grounds for delisting ordinary shares after a notice thereof from the Exchange, Home Exchange or Overseas Regulatory Agency;

(2) being in the process according to the reorganization plan under the law governing bankruptcy or any other similar laws of the country where the Applicant has been incorporated; or

(3) having any operation which materially adversely affects the rights and benefits of shareholders.

(Bor.Jor./Ror. 01-00)

81. An Applicant who is fully qualified under this Regulation, or an Applicant who possesses all other qualifications under this Regulation except that relating to distribution of minority shareholding, may file an application to the Exchange for its approval of ordinary shares which are fully qualified according to Clause 71 as Listed Securities. Applying for Ordinary Shares

82. An Applicant who is required to distribute minority shareholding in order to make itself fully qualified shall complete such distribution of minority shareholding within 6 months from the date on which the Exchange notified the Applicant of the result of its consideration to approve the ordinary shares. Distribution of Share Holding to have it Fully Qualified

Where there is a necessary and appropriate reason, the Board may grant waiver on the period of time for distribution of shareholdings under the first paragraph, provided that the Applicant must request for waiver and provide explanation of the reasons thereof in writing to the Board not less than 7 days before the expiry date under the first paragraph and provided further that the period of waiver must not exceed 6 months from the expiry date of the period under the first paragraph.

In the case that an Applicant who has paid-up capital of not less than Baht 10 billion wishes to gradually distribute its minority shareholding by submitting a minority-shareholding distribution plan to the Exchange in the filing of an application for listing ordinary shares, the Board may additionally grant waiver on period of time for the distribution of minority shareholding if the Applicant has already commenced the public offering of its shares within the period of time under the first or second paragraph. However, such period of waiver must not exceed 1 year from the commencement date of public offering of the ordinary shares.

In the case that the Applicant under the third paragraph is unable to complete the distribution of minority shareholding within the period under the third paragraph, the Exchange may require its ordinary shares to be traded in accordance with the procedures stipulated by the Exchange.

83. In the case that there is an event or change which significantly affects the operation or financial condition of the Applicant during the period of waiver under Clause 82, the Board may consider qualifications of the securities and of the Applicant as if the Board were considering a new application. Consideration of Qualifications of Securities as if the Board were Considering a New Application

84. Upon occurrence of any of the following events, the Exchange may require the Applicant who fails to possess the qualification on distribution of minority shareholding under Clause 82 to file a new application: Filing of New Application in case of Lack of Distribution of Minority Shareholding Qualification

(1) the Applicant is unable to distribute minority shareholding within the period of time under Clause 82;

(2) the Board considers that it is inappropriate to give waiver for the period of distribution of minority shareholding; or

(3) the qualifications of the Applicant after the distribution of minority shareholding under Clause 82 have changed significantly, which results in the Applicant being not fully qualified under this Regulation.

85. The Applicant shall file an application with the Exchange, and other documents required by the Exchange; and pay a fee for filing an application. Filing Procedures

86. In filing an application for listing ordinary shares, the Applicant shall procure that the application is jointly prepared by a financial advisor having the qualifications and scope of work as specified by the Exchange. Financial Advisor

Consideration for Approval of Securities

87. During consideration of the application, if the Applicant wishes to amend any information or documents which have been filed with the Exchange under Clause 85, the Applicant must submit a request for amendment stating clearly the differences and reasons, except that where the Board determines that the proposed amendments are material, the Board may consider such amendments to be a new application. Amendment of Information

88. In considering the application, the Exchange may instruct the Applicant to make any additional statements and submit any additional documents or evidence as considered appropriate within the prescribed period of time. Requiring additional documents

89. In considering the application for and approval of ordinary shares, the Board may assign the President of the Exchange to perform duty of considering the qualifications of the ordinary shares and the Applicant and ordering approval of the applied ordinary shares as Listed Securities when it is found that such ordinary shares have the qualifications according to the rules, conditions and procedures under this Regulation. Consideration for Approval of Ordinary Shares

In considering the application for and approval of preferred shares, the Board may assign the President of the Exchange to perform duty of considering the qualifications of the preferred shares and ordering approval of the applied preferred shares as Listed Securities when it is found that such preferred shares have the qualifications according to the rules, conditions and procedures under this Regulation. The preferred shares shall be approved as Listed Securities together with or after approval of ordinary shares as Listed Securities. Consideration for Approval of Preferred Shares

90. If the Board considers that approval of the Applicant's ordinary shares or preferred shares as Listed Securities shall be beneficial to the capital market, the Board may grant waiver on the qualifications of the Applicant with respect to the following numerical or quantitative criteria for consideration of the application and approval of ordinary shares or preferred shares under Clause 89: Relaxation of Numerical or Quantitative Criteria

- (1) paid up capital pursuant to Clause 72(2);
- (2) distribution of minority shareholding pursuant to Clause 73(3)(a), (b) and (d)(d.1) and (d.2);
- (3) operating result pursuant to Clause 72(4);
- (4) financial condition and liquidity pursuant to Clause 72(5)(b).

In the granting of waiver under the first paragraph, the Board must disclose the information about the waived qualifications of the Applicant to the public.

91. In the case that the Board considers and finds that approval of the Applicant's ordinary or preferred shares as Listed Securities might conflict with public or government policy or affect credibility of Thailand's capital market as a whole, such as damaging investor interests, bringing unfairness to investors, or causing investors to receive insufficient information etc., the Board may not approve such ordinary or preferred shares. Consideration for Approval of Shares of an Applicant

(Bor.Jor./Ror. 01-00)

92. While the Board is considering the application for approval of ordinary shares, the directors, Management or Major Shareholders of the Applicant, and all their respective Related Persons, shall not purchase or sell such ordinary shares. The Applicant shall notify the Exchange when there is such a purchase or sale or when there is any suspicion that a purchase or sale of such ordinary shares by the said persons may occur.

Prohibition of Purchase or Sale of Ordinary Shares During the Board's Consideration of the Application

The Board may refuse to consider the application of the Applicant if there is a purchase or sale of ordinary shares of a person referred to in the first paragraph.

93. The Board shall complete the consideration of an application for approval of ordinary shares and preferred shares within 7 days from the date on which the Exchange receives correct and complete documents and evidence from the Applicant.

Consideration Period

In calculation of time under the first paragraph, the period of time between the date on which the Applicant submits a request to amend information or documents under Clause 87 or the date on which the Exchange gives instruction under Clause 88 and the date on which the Exchange receives correct and complete information or documents shall not be counted.

94. Before the Board approves the ordinary shares of the Applicant as Listed Securities, the Applicant must prohibit the persons as designated by the Board from selling the shares and securities as prescribed by the Exchange.

Prohibition from Selling Shares within Specified Period of Time

In the case that the said persons acquire other securities convertible into shares from the Applicant, or there is an exercise of conversion right attached to such securities during the sale prohibition period, the Applicant shall also prohibit those persons from selling such securities.

95. In considering the application for approval of ordinary shares, the Board shall make a vote openly unless at least 1 director requests voting by poll and the meeting resolves accordingly.

Ordering Approval

96. After consideration of the application by the Board, if the Board finds that the ordinary shares applied for listing have the qualifications in accordance with the rules, conditions and procedures set forth in this Regulation, the Applicant shall sign a listing agreement with the Exchange before the Board approves such ordinary shares as Listed Securities. The Board may also prescribe any condition as it considers appropriate.

Signing of Listing Agreement

The agreement shall be signed by the directors authorized to sign to bind the Applicant with approval of its board of directors.

97. The trading of ordinary and preferred shares which are Listed Securities on the Exchange may commence in the next 2 business days from the date on which the Board approves such securities as Listed Securities, except that where there is any necessity which makes it inappropriate to trade those Listed Securities on the Exchange at such period, the President may otherwise prescribe the commencement date of trading.

Trading Commencement Date

98. The Applicant shall pay fees for listing and fees in relation to the status of Listed Securities at the rates and within the time specified by the Board.

Listing Fees

99. In the case that a Listed Company increases its capital, such Listed Company shall file an application for listing ordinary shares or preferred shares with respect to such capital increase, which are of the same type as the ordinary shares or preferred shares that have been listed.

Approval for the Increased Capital

Consideration of application for approval of securities with respect to the capital increase as Listed Securities shall be in accordance with the rules, conditions and procedures prescribed by the Exchange.

SECTION 4

Financial Advisors

-----

100. A financial advisor shall be approved by the Office before it may participate in the preparation of a listing application.

Qualifications of Financial Advisor

101. In the case that an Applicant has several financial advisors, the Applicant shall specify the principal financial advisor who shall be responsible under this Regulation.

(b) there is a change in the shareholding of a person or group of persons who in aggregate holds in excess of 25 per cent of the paid-up capital of the Applicant, and the change results in a significant change in the directors, Management or management policy;

(c) the use of proceeds from the offering of securities deviates from the purposes specified at the time of the offering of the securities to the public for more than 20 per cent of the proceeds obtained from the offering of securities;

(d) any event which may affect or change the qualifications of a Listed Company as the Exchange deems appropriate.

*The confirmation and opinion made by the financial advisor to the Exchange under the first paragraph shall be in the form prescribed by the Exchange.

(*Amended 22 August 2017. Forced 11 September 2017.)

105. In acting as a financial advisor, the financial advisor shall exercise sufficient expertise, competence and due care in performing its work as a professional.

Financial advisor's
Performance of Duty

106. Except as otherwise provided by the Exchange, no financial advisor shall participate in the preparation of a listing application for an Applicant in the case where it appears that the financial advisor has a direct or indirect relationship with or interest in the Applicant in the nature that may cause the lack of the independence of the financial advisor's operations in accordance with the Notification of the Office governing approval of financial advisors and scope of work.

In the Case that Financial Advisor is Prohibited from Participating in the Preparation of a Listing Application

107. Where any financial advisor carries out its duties under Clause 104 defectively or inappropriately or carries out its operations without exercising sufficient expertise, competence and due care as a professional or violates Clause 106, the Exchange shall have the power to take the following actions:

In that case that the Financial Advisor Operates Defectively

(1) give a warning and instruct the financial advisor to improve its operations to the Exchange's satisfaction;

(2) suspend the status of the financial advisor of such person for a period specified by the Exchange.

The Exchange shall notify such financial advisor in writing of such suspension under the first paragraph. Upon the expiration of the period of suspension, such person may resume operations as a financial advisor.

(Bor.Jor./Ror. 01-00)

108. Any financial advisor subject to the Office’s notice of the suspension of the approval may resume its operations as a financial advisor only upon the lapse of the period of the suspension as specified by the Office.

Financial Advisor Subject to the Office’s Notice of Suspension of the Approval
Financial advisor Subject to the Office’s Revocation of the Approval

109.
