

No. EGCO 110/414

Date: April 30, 2020
Attention: President of the Stock Exchange of Thailand
Subject: Notification of the Extended Period of Work from Home Approach
Reference: The Company Disclosure No. EGCO 110/339 dated March 24, 2020

Reference is made to the Electricity Generating Public Company Limited (“EGCO”) Disclosure regarding the notification of work from home approach. EGCO has taken into account the situation of the 2019 Coronavirus Pandemic (“COVID-19”), which has not been improved, and the representation of EGCO’s concerned over the well-being of its employees, as well as responding to the Government’s policy, announcing the extension of the Emergency Decree in all areas (first extension) on April 28, 2020, effective from May 1 - 31, 2020, to help reduce the spread of virus.

In this regard, EGCO has decided to extend the work from home approach until further notice and further Government’s policy is announced. As such, EGCO has continually and efficiently operated its business at the head office and its power plants amid the current COVID-19 outbreak, following the implementation of our Business Continuity Plan. With the use of digital technology in EGCO’s working process, the head office and power plants are efficiently operating as the normal situation, without any impact to EGCO’s business.

Please be informed accordingly

Yours sincerely,

Gumpant Bumroongit
