must be in full figure. Nevertheless, if the Warrant Holders have rights to purchase less than 100 ordinary shares, they must use the rights to purchase total ordinary shares of the Company at a single time. 7.2 The number of ordinary shares to be issued when there is an exercise of the Warrants shall be calculated by dividing the payment made by the Warrant Holder as stated above by the prevailing Exercise Price. The Company shall then issue ordinary shares in a whole amount, which will not be more than the number of Warrants exercised multiplied by the Exercise Ratio. Where an adjustment to the Exercise Price and/or the Exercise Ratio would result in a fraction of a share, the Company shall not take the fraction into account and shall return any resulting overpayment to the Warrant Holders via registered mail within 14 days from the relevant Exercise Date, with no interest.

- (b) Deems that the number of ordinary shares subscribed is equal to the number of ordinary shares eligible in accordance with the actual payment the Company received given the prevailing Exercise Price; or
- (c) Ask the Warrant Holders to pay the remaining balance of the amount they wish to exercise within the relevant Exercise Period. If the Company does not receive payment within such period, it shall be deemed that the exercise notice will have expired without exercise having taken place.

In case of (a) and (c), the Company shall return the money received by the Company and the Warrant Certificates or the Replacement of Warrant Certificates which are deemed not being exercised to the Warrant Holders by registered mail within 14 days from the relevant Exercise Date with no interest. Such unexercised Warrant Certificates or the Replacement of Warrant Certificates shall be valid until the Last Exercise Date

In case of (b), the Company shall deliver the Warrant Certificates or the Replacement of Warrant Certificates including the money remaining from the exercise of Warrants (if any) reflecting the remaining units as the Company deems that the rights are partly exercised to the Warrant Holders with no interest by registered mail within 14 days from the relevant Exercise Date. However, the unexercised Warrant Certificates or the Replacement of Warrant Certificates shall be valid until the Last Exercise Date.

7.4 When the Warrant Holders who wish to exercise the rights to purchase the ordinary shares have fully complied with all conditions governing their exercise i.e. the Warrant Holders have completely and accurately delivered the Warrant Certificates (or the Replacement of Warrant Certificates), a notification form of intention to exercise the warrants, and a full payment, they cannot rescind the exercise of their Warrants without a prior written consent of the Company.
