Thailand Clearing House Clarifies Draft Derivatives Regulations with Brokers

Thailand Clearing House Co. Ltd. (TCH) has emphasized to securities companies interested in derivatives the necessity of having good risk management systems and staff ready to cope with the T+1 clearing period, as using this clearing period has become the global standard. Securities firms applying for clearing house membership were required to submit documents by July 31, 2005.

Ms. Udomwara Dechsongjarus, TCH Managing Director, said that as the TCH will be the central clearing house for derivatives, it is important for the TCH to clarify all details of its drafted rules and regulations on derivatives clearing to firms interested in becoming members of the TCH and the Thailand Futures Exchange Plc. (TFEX).

An important role of the TCH is to act as a central counter-party for members of the TFEX. As such, the TCH will guarantee clearing and other obligations associated with derivatives trading on the TFEX and therefore the TCH must make it absolutely clear to its members the importance of being able to manage any associated risks.

Furthermore, the T+1 clearing and settlement period, or one business day after the transaction date, means that securities staff must adapt to this shortened turnaround time.

"The T+1 clearing period is a standard practice in other derivatives markets, as it helps reduce default risks. Nevertheless, derivatives trading, which is set to start by end-2005, is new in Thailand. Therefore, TCH is ensuring that all market participants are implementing well-equipped risk management systems and readying their staffs to deal with the new T+1 clearing period to increase the level of confidence in the market's clearing system," Ms. Udomwara said.

Those wishing to become TCH members will have to be well-prepared in all aspects and qualified to be TFEX members before applying for their TCH memberships. Companies applying for TFEX and TCH memberships were required to submit their documents by July 31, 2005.

After the TCH has reviewed and finalized all details concerning its clearing rules and regulations, it will propose the regulations to its board of directors and then seek further approval from the Securities and Exchange Commission. ✍

ASEAN Exchanges Collaborate with FTSE Group to Create Regional Index Series

The Stock Exchange of Thailand

The five ASEAN exchanges (Bursa Malaysia, Jakarta Stock Exchange, The Philippines Stock Exchange, Singapore Exchange and The Stock Exchange of Thailand) and the global index provider FTSE Group (FTSE) signed a memorandum of understanding (MOU) to create internationally recognized indices for the ASEAN equity markets as a regional grouping.

Under the MOU, the FTSE will create a set of indices for the trading and benchmarking of financial products such as institutional and retail funds, exchange traded funds, and derivatives contracts. The indices will be designed using international standards, be free-float adjusted and based on the Industry Classification Benchmark (ICB).

The Exchanges said in a joint statement, "This is the first collaborative effort amongst the five Exchanges under the ASEAN umbrella. We see this as paving the way for future collaboration between the Exchanges. The development of indices based on international standards and recognized methodology by the FTSE will increase the global visibility of the ASEAN markets and help promote the ASEAN economies to both regional and global investors by branding ASEAN as an asset class".

Mr. Mark Makepeace, Chief Executive, FTSE Group, said, "The FTSE is delighted to be chosen as the preferred index partner by the ASEAN exchanges. The development of new innovative regional index products for the South East Asian market is an important step for investors looking to invest in the region."

Mr. Chukiat Yongvongpaibul, President & CEO of Permsin, remarked on the company's key strength: *"We are using the most sophisticated technology and have an experienced engineering team innovating new products and providing customers with useful advice. We have heavily invested in machinery and human resources so our valued customers will only receive the finest quality products. For example, we recently imported a THB120 mln. (approx. USD3 mln.) # M.C.S.

Steel Pcl. (MCS) is a leading steel fabricating company in Thailand. Established in 1992, MCS has accumulated over a decade of valuable experience in fabricating high-rise steel structures, including buildings, power plants, bridges and other general steel works. The company manufactures and sells structural steel fabrications, e.g., column-boxes and beams for high-rise building projects.

"Better Than Yesterday, Everyday"

Naiyuan Chi Dr. Eng., Executive Chairman of M.C.S. Steel Pcl. said: *"MCS has placed a great emphasis on 'quality'. We have continued to improve the quality of our products so that they have been certified by several standard organizations in both Japan and Thailand. ## SICCO Earns a 'Very Good' Corporate Governance Rating

The Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) announced that Siam Industrial Credit Pcl. (SICCO) had, for the third consecutive year, applied for its corporate governance (CG) rating from the Thai Rating and Information Service Co. Ltd. (TRIS). The company received an overall 8.06/10 score, showing that it is still placing importance on CG and this has yielded good results.

"The company's proven record in good CG is evident by its receiving the 'Best Corporate Governance Report Award' at the SET Awards 2003-2004, plus receiving the 'Distinction in Maintaining an Excellent CG Report Award' from the SET Awards 2005," SET Executive Vice President Ms. Sopawadee noted.

According to TRIS, SICCO received its highest score (8.52/10) in the Information Disclosure criterion. It is noteworthy that the company has constantly submitted both financial and non-financial reports on time. Also it included its 'Directors' Responsibilities for its Financial Reports' in the company's 2004 Annual Report. In the report, SICCO stated its directors' responsibilities with regards to both SICCO's and its subsidiaries' financial statements.

On Shareholders' Rights, SICCO received 8.31/10 score, as it has put in place a mechanism that has ensured its shareholders full protection against any connected transactions, conflict of interests, or insider trading.

Furthermore, SICCO provides a mechanism for shareholders to effectively exercise their voting rights—it sends out its meeting invitation letters in advance of the period required by law and the company includes an agenda on critical issues in its shareholders' meetings, in line with the SET's rules.

On its Corporate Governance Culture, SICCO earned 8.12/10 score due to its high proportion of retail shareholders, at 61.45%, which indicates a balanced control between large and small shareholders.

Since SICCO earned a CG rating score greater than 7.00/10 in 2003 and 2004, the SET has offered SICCO a 50% discount on its annual listing fees for those two years. In addition, the company received a discount and services from the Securities and Exchange Commission.
