NOTIFICATION OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF THAILAND

Re: Posting of NP and NR Signs, 2001

By virtue of Clause 4 of the Regulations of the Stock Exchange of Thailand Re: Trading, Clearing and Settlement of Securities in the Exchange (No.2), 1999 dated 31 August 1999, the Stock Exchange of Thailand hereby issues the following regulations:

1. This Notification shall come into force on January 3, 2001.

3. In this Notification

"listed company" means a company of which ordinary shares are listed on the Exchange;

"NP", which stands for "Notice Pending", means a sign which no notifies investors that the listed company has a message or information to be explained or reported to the Exchange.

"NR", which stands for "Notice Received", means a sign which notifies investors that the listed company has explained or reported the message or information to the Exchange.

4. When any one of the following events occurs, the President or his designated person may post NP sign on the securities board so as to notify investors that the listed company has a message or information to be explained or reported to the Exchange:

   (1) The listed company does not submit financial statement or other reports to the Exchange within prescribed period.

   (2) The Exchange is awaiting additional explanation or report from the listed company, or the message or information received from the listed company is not sufficiently complete or clear.

5. When the clear message or information under Clause 4 has been fully received by the Exchange and been released to investors, the President or his designated person shall remove the NP sign from the securities board and post NR sign in its place so as to notify investors that the listed company has explained or reported the message or information to the Exchange.

Notified on this 3rd day of January 2001.

(Signed) Vicharat Vichit-Vadakan

(Mr. Vicharat Vichit-Vadakan)
