Explanation

1. The trigger points for the reporting obligation to comply with NVDRs' prospectus and under Section 246 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 are:
 - (1) holding of NVDRs representing underlying shares and/or its underlying securities in the amount that reaches or crosses 5% ... 10% ... 15% ... 20% ... to 100% of total voting rights of the business.
 - (2) holding of NVDRs representing convertible securities and/or its underlying securities whose amount of the total underlying securities reserved for conversion reaches or crosses 5% ... 10% ... 15% ... 20% ... to 100% of total voting rights of the business.
2. Securities that are subject to the reporting obligation are NVDRs representing underlying shares and/or its underlying securities whose securities are listed on the Stock Exchange of Thailand and NVDRs representing convertible securities and/or its underlying securities into, or whose exercise of rights deliverable as, NVDRs and/or its underlying securities issued by a company whose securities are listed on the Stock Exchange of Thailand.
3. In the case of two persons or more commencing a concert party relationship or the acquisition of a juristic person under Section 258 resulting in an aggregate shareholding reaches or crosses the trigger points for the reporting obligation, all such persons shall file a report with NVDRs' prospectus and Section 246 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535. Such persons may jointly submit the report in the same form (Form 246-2-R) by providing the information required under item 10.

4. If the termination of status of a concert party or status of a juristic person under Section 258 results in an aggregate holding of NVDRs representing underlying shares and/or its underlying securities or NVDRs representing of convertible securities and/or its underlying securities reaches or crosses the trigger points for the reporting obligation, all such persons shall file a report with NVDRs' prospectus and Section 246 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 by providing the information required under item 10.

5. The percentage holding of securities shall be calculated as follows:

(a) If the reported NVDRs represent underlying shares, the percentage holding is:

$$\frac{\text{The total number of NVDRs and/or the total number of voting rights of underlying shares held} \times 100}{\text{The total number of voting rights in the business}^1}$$

(b) If the reported NVDRs represent convertible securities, the percentage holding is:

$$\frac{\text{The total number of NVDRs and/or the total number of voting rights of underlying shares to be acquired if all held convertible securities are exercised} \times 100}{\text{The total number of voting rights in the business}^{1 \text{ and } 2}}$$

¹ In cases where the business has outstanding treasury stocks, it shall refer to the total number of voting rights in the total number of shares sold less the total number of outstanding treasury stocks as of the last day of the month prior to the transaction (the information of treasury stocks of a listed company is available at <http://capital.sec.or.th/webapp/treasury/showTreasury.php>).

² The number of voting rights applied for calculation will be based on the total number of voting rights, excluding shares to be acquired upon exercising the rights of convertible securities.

2/4

In case of acquisition of newly issued NVDRs and/or its underlying shares: Percentage of shares acquired and voting Rights held after acquisition shall be calculated by using the total number of voting rights of the business after the new issuance.

Example:

- Company A has a total of 1 million issued shares and a total of 50,000 issued warrants, with the exercise ratio of one (1) warrant to one (1) share to one (1) voting right.

- Mr. B holds 45,000 shares with 45,000 voting rights and 9,000 warrants in Company A.
- Mr. B acquires another 5,000 NVDRs and 42,000 NVDRs representing warrants (1 NVDR = 1 underlying share = 1 voting right).

Calculation of NVDRs representing underlying shares for reporting purposes:

(1)	Shares held prior to the acquisition	45,000 voting rights
(2)	Net acquired NVDRs	5,000 units
(3)	Total	50,000 voting rights
(4)	$[(3) / 1,000,000] \times 100$	5%

Calculation of NVDRs representing convertible securities for reporting purposes:

1	Warrants held prior to the acquisition	9,000 Units	$9,000 \times 1 = 9,000$ voting rights
2	Net acquired NVDRs representing warrants	42,000 Units	$42,000 \times 1 = 42,000$ Units
3	Total		51,000 voting rights
4	$[(3) / 1,000,000] \times 100$		5.1%

Therefore, Mr. B has to report his acquisition of NVDRs in Company A by filing two separate sets of forms (246-2-NVDR) - one for the acquisition of NVDRs representing underlying shares and the other for NVDRs representing convertible securities.

Example of the calculation in the case of the business having treasury stocks:

- Company A has a total of 1 million issued shares and a total of 50,000 issued warrants, with an exercise ratio of one (1) warrant to one (1) share to one (1) voting right.
- Mr. B holds 45,000 shares with 45,000 voting rights and 9,000 warrants of Company A.
- Mr. B acquires another 13,000 NVDRs and 42,000 NVDRs representing warrants where 1 NVDR = 1 underlying share = 1 voting right
- Company A has 50,000 voting rights outstanding from the treasury share at the end of the month prior to Mr. B's transaction.

Calculation of NVDRs representing underlying shares for reporting purposes:

(1)	Shares held prior to the acquisition	45,000 voting rights
(2)	Net acquired NVDRs	13,000 units
(3)	Total	58,000 voting rights
	$[(3) / 950,000 \text{ voting rights}] \times 100$	6.1%

Calculation of NVDRs representing convertible securities for reporting purposes:

1	Warrants held prior to the acquisition	9,000 Units	$9,000 \times 1 = 9,000$ voting rights
2	Net acquired NVDRs representing warrants	42,000 Units	$42,000 \times 1 = 42,000$ units
3	Total (1) + (2)		51,000 voting rights

4	[3) / 1,000,000 - 50,000 voting rights] X 100	5.36%
---	---	-------

Therefore, Mr. B has to report his acquisition of NVDRs with underlying Company A by filing two forms (246-2-NVDR) - one for acquiring NVDRs representing underlying shares and 3/4 for NVDRs representing convertible securities.

6. The highest price paid for an acquisition during the 90-day period to be provided under item 4 of the form means the highest price paid during the following period:

During the 90-day period, if the following events occur and NVDRs and/or its underlying Securities of the business are acquired before such events, the reporting person shall specify the highest price paid for the acquisition before and after such events in two separate periods:

- (1) dividend declaration;
- (2) change of par value resulting in an increase or decrease in the number of shares;
- (3) grant of rights to subscribe newly issued shares or transferable subscription rights to the existing shareholders on a pro rata basis (rights issue).

(In the case of acquisition by inheritance, the report must be filed within three business days from the registration date of transfer of such securities).

7. Where any person is obliged to report his acquisition or disposition of NVDRs representing underlying shares and/or its underlying securities or NVDRs representing convertible securities and/or its underlying securities on the same date, the respective report (Form 246-2-NVDR) shall be filed separately.

8. Where any person transacts a number of acquisitions and dispositions of the same NVDRs and/or its underlying securities on any single day, the net result of such transactions shall be calculated at the end of such day to determine the change in NVDRs and/or its underlying securities holding and whether such increase or decrease of the securities holding, together with the previous holding, reaches or crosses the trigger points, and if it is the case the person shall have the duty to file a report on Form 246-2-NVDR.

9. A custodian may report an acquisition or disposition of NVDRs and/or its underlying securities on behalf of its client if authorisation for such purpose is granted by the client.

10. If information required is not available, the reporting person shall mark “—” in the relevant space.
