Thai bourse to showcase Thailand's investment potential in HK, JP roadshows

BANGKOK, June 25, 2015 - The Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) has joined hands with Capital Nomura Securities plc to host "SET & Nomura Hong Kong, Tokyo Roadshow 2015", during June 29 - July 3 in Hong Kong and Tokyo with ten Thai listed companies to present their strengths to boost Asian investors' confidence.

SET President Kesara Manchusree said that "SET & Nomura Hong Kong, Tokyo Roadshow 2015" would be organized at an opportune time to provide the Thai capital market's essential information and potential as well as investment trend to feature Thailand's attractiveness. This roadshow would also bring listed companies, especially small and medium-sized firms, to present information directly to the institutional investors which would help boost up confidence among foreign funds, as Hong Kong's was considered one of largest foreign funds on Thai bourse, while Japan was also one of SET's key targets to expand investor base.

"Thai listed companies with strong performance joining this roadshow in one-on-one meetings are Asia Aviation plc (AAV), Apico Hitech plc (AH), Amata Corporation plc (AMATA), Ananda Development plc (ANAN), BJC Heavy Industries plc (BJCHI), CH. Karnchang plc (CK), CK Power plc (CKP), The Erawan Group plc (ERW), SVI plc (SVI), Ticon Industrial Connection plc (TICON), with a combined market capitalization of THB 173 billion (approx. 5.15 billion USD) (as of June 24, 2015)," Kesara added.

During the event, SET will also join forces with KPMG AZSA LLC in Japan to organize seminar on SET listing rules for Japanese private sector. The seminar is expected to gain interest among Japanese firms as Japan has a large number of direct investment in Thailand. This seminar is part of SET's strategic plan to promote foreign listing.
